AUSTRALIAN TEAM TO TOUR NEW ZEALAND

A Glance at the Last Tour There

By LEONARD YOUNG

I heard a very interesting announcement over the wireless recently, an Australian team was to visit New Zealand. It made me cast my mind back to 1954 somewhat naturally, for this was yours truly's first season as Victoria's coach, and my first clash (in a sporting way, of course) with the Kiwis.

THE general impression I received from people who had been in close contact with the touring side on previous occasions, was that the series was "in the bag" for Australia, and past records of games between the two countries seemed to support this feeling. In 1922 this country visited New Zealand, and had by far the best of the argument, winning 9 matches, losing 4, and drawing 1, with a goal average of 40 goals for, and 22 against. The following year we acted as hosts to our Kiwi rivals, and strangely enough, in spite of being at home, we were beaten in the Tests by two matches to one, although over the whole tour we did manage to win 7 matches to our opponents' 6, with the remaining two matches ending in a draw. The goals scored record was: 29 for, and 28 against; and no doubt you will agree with me that it must have been one of the most exciting International Soccer contests over the years. However, in 1948 Australia again visited their old friends, and this time thoroughly demonstrated their superiority by winning all 13 matches played, with the magnificent goal average of 90 goals for, and only 4 being scored against them. So, as mentioned earlier, the feeling of confidence apparent here for the forthcoming 1954 Tests was not surprising. Then the shocks began — the Kiwis won their first two matches — one of them over a strong Australian eleven, and it remained for Victoria to stop the rot with a 2 goals to 1 victory, after a very hard-fought struggle here in Melbourne. But the visitors were not dismayed, and put up a good performance to win the first Test match. From then on they were unfortunate being very badly hit by injuries, and I shudder to think how the tour might have ended, short of playing strength as they were, had not Bill Lyons, a newcomer then to the Soccer arena, done a really grand job to get them back on to their "playing legs" again. Nevertheless, they won two more games and drew three others, but lost the remaining two Test matches. However, the tour record was quite impressive, the New Zealanders winning 5, losing 4, and drawing 3 games, with a goal scoring record of 22 for, and 25 against. It was very clear to me that the Kiwis are quick to learn from mistakes, and have the ability to raise their game to almost any level. Coupled with this, is the fact that three coaches I knew in the Old Country have gone there in an endeavour to raise the standard of Soccer still further. So, presuming this 1958 tour does materialise, our boys will have quite a "fight" on their hands.

I sincerely trust that the squad members will be chosen quickly, and each individual instructed to work rigidly to a training schedule before the team leaves. On so many occasions have injuries depleted the strength of a touring side, particularly one without expert coaching and training advice, that I feel the lesson "must" have been learnt!

LET'S HAVE MORE PUBLICITY

"SOCCER News" has received many complaints that our publicity is falling down, not only in our publication, but also on the broadcasting stations.

For example, have a look at the "Teams for To-day" column in "Soccer News." Each week we depend upon the old reliables, and they are not State League Clubs, either.

Every Club in the Association has been issued with printed forms and requested to complete same and return first post Monday morning. The general news from the Clubs also appear on these forms.

So that's why, readers, you do not read what you want to read because of lack of co-operation. Club Secretaries are, therefore, given a further gentle reminder that the public wish to know about your Club's activities.

A special reminder is given to State League Clubs that the Saturday night broadcasting session caters for up-to-date information. The station, 3XY (telephone No. FB 3511; 'phone not later than 6.10 p.m. each Saturday); and the home Club is requested to provide details of its Saturday match.

We know the State League Clubs feel they are a powerful body, but it's going to be very hard to convince the powers-that-be of this fact if the avenues of publicity are deliberately ignored.

We want to read and listen to up-to-date publicity. Over to you now — members of the V.A.S.F.A.

Experimental positional changes do not always work out to advantage, but last Saturday saw Park Rangers with a "new look" team, which had Yarra Park puzzled for the first 60 minutes. No less than five positional changes were made before the game.

By J. M. COOK.

★ Latest brainwave of Walter Winterbottom, English team manager, is a captive football. The ball, attached to a piece of nylon elastic, is anchored to the ground and can be kicked and controlled by a single player; or, if necessary, two or more players can use it at the same time. An almost infinite number of moves can be tried out.

★ Coach to the Scottish Amateur F.A. is Sailor Bill Williamson, former Rangers inside forward.

★ The famous Hughie Gallacher, of Newcastle and Chelsea fame, who died in tragic circumstances a year ago, left his three sons well provided for. Each receives £5,000 on reaching the age of 21.

★ With being relegated to the English League Division II again, Sheffield Wed. are making their fourth trip downstairs since 1946.

★ Airdrie, who beat Rangers 2-1 in their last match of the past season at Ibrox, had not previously won there for 27 years.

★ Aberdeen, badly in need of a top class centre since Paddy Buckley retired through injury, may spend big money on Fleming, from Sunderland, or on 53-goal Peter Price, from Ayr United.

★ Scunthorpe United, one of the youngest members of the English League, won promotion to the Second Division this season.

★ Scotland's latest football star, 19-year-old left-half Bobby Kennedy, of Kilmarnock, can at a throw in, throw the ball 35 yards.

★ Bobby Flavell, ex-Airdrie and Arsenal star, who hit the headlines a few years ago by going to Bogota, South America, to play with two other players, and defied the F.A., is in line for the coaching job with St. Mirren.

★ After the Munich plane disaster, Manchester United home gates were around the 60,000 mark; with few victories near the end of the season, they dropped to under 30,000.

★ Alex. McCrae, former Hearts and Charlton player, is now manager of Ballymena United, the club which won the Irish Cup this year.

★ George Johnston, who plays Australian Rules Football for Belgrave, was a soccer player with an Aberdeen club before emigrating to Australia.

★ The past season Preston North End finished up as runners-up to Wolves in the English First Division League. The previous season they were third, so it looks a good omen for 1958-59 season for Preston.

★ Sammy Stewart, who has been 17 years on East Fife's books, may become their new manager, Jerry Dawson having resigned recently.

★ Jock Govan, former Hibs international full-back of a few seasons ago, has taken a pub in Newhaven, round the corner from another famous licensee, Barney Battles, formerly of Hearts.

★ Paddy Buckley, former Aberdeen centre, has become coach to Preston Athletic, the Edinburgh club.

★ Sunderland, relegated to the English Second Division, have spent over £300,000 in buying players over the past 10 years. Incidentally, Sunderland were the only remaining Division 1 club who had never previously been relegated.

★ Glasgow Rangers' numbered reserve season ticket-holders will pay £15 for their cards this year. Special privileges permitted will be their own tea bar and a private car-park.

★ Jimmy Murphy, who has been acting manager of Manchester United in Matt Busby's absence, has the possibilities of two fabulous offers of top salary and long term contract to join other clubs as manager. This will be a terrific test of Jimmy's loyalty to Manchester United.

★ It is not generally known that an attacking team awarded an indirect free kick in the opposing penalty area can kick the ball in any direction.

★ Sterling Albion have the fantastic record of having been up and down five times in the Scottish League Division 1 and 2 since 1946.

★ Tottenham Hotspurs are likely to sign Bob McNichol, Accrington full-back, for a five-figure sum. Their last buy from Accrington, two years centre half and captain, Johnny Ryden, cost them £12,000.

Junior Notes

THE Under 14 State Eleven travelled to Morwell last Sunday to play a friendly game against the local undefeated Under 15 Junior side.

Played under very heavy conditions, the Under 14 State Eleven were defeated by Werkspoor Juniors Under 15 Eleven by 5-1. During an even first half a defensive slip by Murcott, the visitors' centre-half, let in Licht to open the Juniors' account. Shortly after, the same player scored again for Werkspoor, his shot being partially saved by Lockwood, but struck the post and trickled over the line. During a long spell of attacking by the visitors, Stirling showed fine ball control, dribbled past three opponents, and scored for the State Eleven. Scores at half-time: 2-1.

The second half was played in heavy rain, making conditions very slippery. In spite of stubborn defensive play by the younger and lighter State Eleven, a strong Werkspoor side added three goals through Senders (two) and Nenhue. The State Eleven forward line was disrupted by an injury to W. Vojtek, but Werkspoor Juniors were worth winners.

On July 6, the Under 14 State Eleven will play another friendly match against Heidelberg, at Middle Park. Kick-off at 2.45 p.m.

Team chosen as follows: Lockwood; Hedley, Caithness; Mullen, Murcott, Molloy; J. Vojtek, Wilson, W. Vojtek, Stirling and Culbard. Reserves: Rossetto and Wills. Players to meet at 2 p.m.

Results of the following games were not telephoned last Saturday: Under 15, Section B (Wesley College v. South Melbourne); and Under 17, Section B (Box Hill v. Yallourn). Wesley College and Box Hill have been fined under League Rule 10 (e).

To the Editor

District Club Names

Sir. — On reading T. Davis's letter of June 6, I do not entirely disagree with his view. Admittedly, the migration of Central Europeans has built up Soccer today; but you must admit that the bad publicity we have been getting is generally found around the national clubs and their following.

Another bad thing for Soccer is that many clubs use the name of their Soccer clubs in their national country. Why not make them use the name of the district the Club plays in, and giving the local residents a chance of supporting their club, instead of a name they don't understand, or want to?

I, too, agree with T. Davis that national clubs should be disbanded. (I have heard of two clubs that do not allow any other nationals to join them).

One way is that players should be residentially tied to their district's club, therefore distributing the strength of Soccer all over Melbourne.

I would also like to see Soccer start earlier, giving many players and spectators a chance to get home before dark, and more time to go out for the evening's entertainment. — Yours, etc.,

B. J. C. TREVENNA.

100th Game for University

Sir. — Perhaps the following item may be of interest to you.

"David Lea, right-winger and captain of the University first team, will this week play his 100th game for the University. David, who is 23 years old, is an Arts graduate, and plans to return to England for a visit shortly. He is a school-teacher and has encouraged many boys to play Soccer by his enthusiasm in coaching them and refereeing their games.

"David has represented the Melbourne University in the annual Inter-Varsity Soccer carnival for seven years consecutively, which is a record, and has been awarded a full Blue by the University."

Perhaps I should explain that a Blue is only awarded to a player who has played well consistently, and who has also done a good deal in the administration of the club. —Yours, etc.,

ROSS READING.

[Congratulations, Dave.—Ed.]

George Cross Line-up?

Sir.—I wish to see the following George Cross line-up next Saturday:—

Right wing, Zammit.
Right inside, Sacco.
Centre forward, Saxelby.

Another Queensland Player Suspended

On June 2, 1958, the Brisbane and Ipswich Soccer Football Association imposed a life suspension on player Giulio Franchi, a member of the Azzuri F.C., for spitting in the face of Referee W. Vernon and using filthy and abusive language to the Referee, and also threatening him with violence and hurling the centre flag post in the direction of the Referee and players during the fixture, Corinthian F.C. v. Azzuri F.C., at the Brisbane Cricket Ground on May 24 last.

Notes from Prahran Soccer Club

Prahran Club had all three teams at home on Saturday, with the senior team being the only victors. They fought out a good game with Frankston and won, 1-0. It was a good clean and fast game. Scorer, Morgan, with Jator in goals — he played brilliant.

The Reserves met Frankston Reserves and were beaten, 5-2. It was also a good game; but Frankston were ahead all through.

The Juniors, under 20, went down to the Lions by 1-0. We had to use a centre forward for goal-keeper, as the 'keeper never arrived; but the Lions, on the day, were one goal better. We will now have to fight harder to get back in the four. Good luck, boys. Keep the game going.

Dandenong's defeat of Richmond last week confirms their previously impressive form, and they will be all out to improve upon their drawn game against South Melbourne United in the first round; but South are going great guns, and should take it out.

CLUB NEWS

SLAVIA's "scratch" team of last week performed surprisingly well in the first half, and was unlucky to miss several scoring opportunities. They need a forward who can shoot goals.

Frankston Club were pleased to welcome Mr. Dockerty at the Frankston v. Prahran game at Como Park last Saturday.

Bayswater played very poorly on Saturday, and Sandringham deserved their win. The referee's handling of the game did not call for any orchids. Bayswater Grand Ball will be held at the famous "Park Orchards Chalet" on August 1. Tickets are available from the Secretary (phone, BM 9806).

Frankston Soccer Club is proud of the fact that in the Cancer Campaign Doorknock, the Club collected by far the largest amount of any organisation in the district.
